(n) the matters relating to tenure of office, remuneration and terms and conditions of service of the persons referred to in section 26; and

(o) any other matter for which under this Act provisions may be made by regulations.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the first regulations under this Act shall be made by the Central Government; and any regulations so made may be altered or rescinded by the Institute in exercise of its power under sub-section (1).

Rules and regulations to be laid before Parliament.

30. Every rule and every regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modifications in the rule or regulation or both Houses agree that the rule or regulation should not be made, the rule or regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Vaikunth Mehta National Institute of Co-operative Management Pune, is the only Institute of its kind in the whole country, for imparting intensive training and education in cooperative management.

Late Shri Vaikunthlal Mehta, after whom this Institute is named, was a pioneer in Co-operative Movement in the former Bombay Presidency. His keen knowledge of finance especially Co-operative Finance was well-known. He was a pillar of strength to the budding co-operative movement in his time. As a great believer in Gandhian economics, he had a living faith in co-operative management of finances also.

The Institute was established in the year 1967 as a unique institute to impart knowledge and administrative skills.

Government had constituted a committee under the Chairmanship of late Dr. D. R. Gadgil, one time Deputy Chairman of the Planning Commission. His services to present day growth of co-operative movement in Maharashtra especially in processing industries like sugar are well-known. Keenly aware of the growing need of fully trained Co-operative Managers, he prepared a project of this institute and it was on the basis of his vision that the pattern of training and research to be undertaken through this institute was established. Government of India fully accepted the report of this committee better known as 'Gadgil Committee' and decided to proceed on the lines suggested by this Committee. He had pin-pointed the need for research, publication and training of higher cadres for Co-operative Management. He visualized an autonomous educational institute which would address to this task in the spirit of higher academic and educational discipline conducive to serious research in all aspects of Co-operative Management and Finances.

This is the high heritage of the Institute. Unfortunately, the report of Gadgil Committee has not fully been implemented yet and this has created a serious handicap in the effective and efficient functioning of the Institute.

The Bill proposes to remove all the impediments in the process of creating such an institution to fulfil not only the dreams of late Shri Vaikunth Mehta and Dr. D. R. Gadgil but also to fulfil the need of providing trained and higher Management, which is the accepted object of this Institute. The Bill seeks to fulfil this long felt need of an institution which would be providing managerial and administrative skill to create cadre of evergoing co-operative sector. It is proposed to make the Institute a statutory body corporate and declare it as an institution of national importance under entry 64 of List I of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India so that it may develop as a high level institution of Co-operative management both at the undergraduate and post-graduate levels with its doors open for all

SURESH KALMADI,

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 15 of the Bill provides for giving grants to the Institute after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf. At the current level of activity the recurring annual grant-in-aid by the Central Government to the Institute is estimated to be Rs. 75 lakhs per annum.

2. The Bill does not involve any other expenditure of a recurring or non-recurring nature.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 28 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make, after consultation with the Institute, rules by notification in the Official Gazette to carry out the purposes of the Act. The matters in respect of which such rules may be made are specified therein. These matters relate, inter alia, to the manner of nomination of certain members of the Institute to the control and the restrictions in relation to the constitution of standing and ad hoc committees of the Institute, etc.

2 Clause 29 of the Bill empowers the Institute to make, with the previous approval of the Central Government, regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder. The matters in respect of which such regulations may be made are specified therein. These matters relate, inter alia, to the procedure for conducting business at meetings other than the first meeting of the Institute, the manner of constituting the governing body and the standing and ad hoc committees, powers and functions of the governing body, and the Chairman thereof, etc.

3. The matters in respect of which rules and regulations may be made are matters of administrative detail and procedure and, as such, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

II

BILL No. VII OF 1984

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1984. | Short title. |
| 2. For article 371 of the Constitution, the following article shall be substituted, namely:— | Substitution of new article for article 371. |
| 371. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the President may, by order made with respect to the State of Maharashtra or Gujarat, provide for the establishment of separate boards for the development of Maharashtra or, as the case may be, of Gujarat, and, in particular, of the districts of Nagpur, Akola, Amravati, Bhandara, Buldhana, Chandrapur, Wardha and Yavatmal in Vidarbha region and the districts of Aurangabad, Bir, Parbhani, Nanded, Osmanabad, Latur and Jalna in the Marathwada region and Saurashtra and Kutch in Gujarat, by the Government of Maharashtra or, as the case may be, by the Government of Gujarat. | Special provision with respect to the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat. |

(2) Each board shall take special steps to secure rapid and accelerated development of the said areas in all fields, educational, economic, cultural and social, in order to bring these areas in each State on par with other developed areas of the State.

(3) Each board shall make a report to the Government of the respective State and to the President after every six months regarding the progress of development in different fields and the executive power of the Union shall extend to the giving of directions to the board and the concerned Government as to the development measures taken or to be taken by the board in consultation with the Government of the State.

(4) The President may make such other orders in respect of the development of each State as he may consider necessary having regard to the requirements of each State.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under article 371 of the Constitution, a special provision for the development of the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat was made at the time of the formation of these States. In spite of the assurances to the effect that the underdeveloped areas of the States would not suffer for want of attention in the matter of development, actually such areas have not received a fair deal and the result is that the people in certain regions of these States continue to suffer and languish in the matter of development in the economic, social, educational and industrial fields.

It is, therefore, felt imperative that the people of Vidarbha, Marathwada, Saurashtra and Kutch are assured that speedy development measures will be taken in these regions. To this end, article 371 of the Constitution needs to be suitably amended.

Hence, this Bill.
